

Faculty Development Program (FDP), 2017-2018

Training Report

As a part of Faculty Development Program (FDP) and as per the guidelines by University of Pune, we at MIT ACSC, Alandi (D), Pune has organized a Seminar on "Intellectual Property Rights" for Teaching and Nonteaching Staff in the college on Wednesday, 22nd November, 2017 between 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

This speech was delivered by Prof. Bhushan Mehare Assistant Professor at MIT SOM. This training program helped faculties to understand all the intellectual rights of a human being in India. He defined the term as "Intellectual property rights are the rights given to persons over the creations of their minds. They usually give the creator an exclusive right over the use of his/her creation for a certain period of time." He mainly focused on trademarks, copyright, patents, industrial design rights.

Individual development always leads to the organizational development

In the first few minutes he talked about WIPO (world Intellectual property rights) .He said WIPO was created In 1967 "to encourage creative activity, to promote the protection of intellectual property throughout the world. Then he explained in detail about what is patent, why are patents necessary, what kind of protection do patents offer, what rights do patent owners have, how patent is granted, what role do patents play in everyday life, what kinds of inventions can be protected, who grants patents etc . This will help researchers to file the patent in near future. He then explained in detail about is trademarks. What do trademarks do, what kinds of trademarks can be registered, how a trademark is registered etc.
