A Report of 'Seminar on Consumer Guidance and Financial Literacy held on 22nd August, 2017'

Date: 08/09/2017

A seminar on Consumer Guidance and Financial Literacy was organized by Department of BBA and BBA IB for the students and faculties of all streams on Tuesday, 22nd August, 2017. The basic motive of this seminar was to create awareness about consumer rights and the consumer protection mechanism in India. Today also many educated people are facing the problems of deception, adulteration, misrepresentation, frauds etc and they are falling victims of such events while buying the goods and services.

The Consumer Guidance Society of India (CGSI) is a pioneer consumer organization which was founded in 1966 and has been working for the protection of consumer interests ever since. In the above said seminar there were speakers from The Consumer Guidance Society of India (CGSI) and National Stock Exchange of India (NSE), Mr. Vikram Jindal addressed audiences on 'Consumer Awareness' and Mr. Prafulla Pawar delivered lecture on 'Financial literacy and how to be a smart investor?'

Following points were covered in consumer guidance lecture given by Adv. Vikram Jindal, Honorary Member, CGSI, Mumbai:

1. Rights of consumer
2. Examples of cheating / fraud in market with reference to insurance policy, real estate, retail marketing, travelling etc
3. Where to approach in case of cheating / fraud.
4. Process of filling the case in consumer court
5. Working of court etc

Following points were covered in Financial Literacy lecture given by Mr. Prafulla Pawar, Certified Financial Planner:

1. Basic financial concept like shares, debentures etc.
2. Systematic investment plan, how to invest online
3. Online trading and investment in Mutual Fund
4. Detail Information given about BSE and NSE

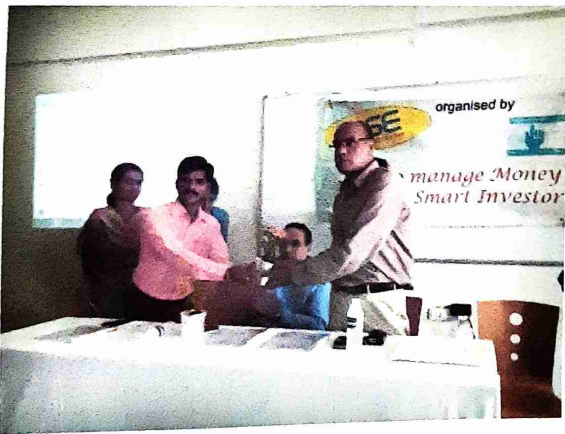

85 students and faculties from all departments of the college participated actively in this workshop and were given certificates of participation.
