Reference : Your Letter No. BSW / 2016-17 / 61 dated 05/07/2016.

Respected Sir,

With reference to above subject, MITACSC, Alandi has conducted the "SWACCHA BHARAT ABHIYAN" on 18.07.2016 between 9:30 am to 11:00 am in Alandi Area. In this campaign, total 20 students have participated voluntarily and collected the garbage which mostly included plastic materials, unused papers, pilgrims useless cloths and torn pieces, flower petals and garlands, plastic water bottles etc. in the Alandi area. Being the holy place of Saint Dnyaneshwar, Alandi area is full of pilgrims and market area is always fully occupied. Alandi is always crowd being a holy place and hence garbage saturates and spreads very fast because of negligence of these people. The garbage collected was handed over to the Alandi Municipal Authority.

REPORT ONMime on "Addiction of Mobile"

In this information Age, Mobiles has become a basic requirement of a human being. Earlier mobile was used only for the communication with distant person, but today each and every activity like communication, messaging, internet, entertainment, banking, shopping, office work, research work, gaming, even though medical advice from specialist doctors, appointments etc can be performed on the tip of the finger. Therefore, almost all have become addict of mobile phones. Besides, these applications, there are many side effects of mobile phones due to this addiction.

Therefore, Student Welfare Department and Statistics Department of MITACSC, Alandi, took initiative to address this problem and jointly conducted a cultural activity called Mime on the theme "Addiction of Mobile" on 08/08/2016 to create awareness among students and staff on the occasion of foundation day of MITACSC, Alandi. Total 20 students of FYBSc (C) participated in this activity and tried to create awareness about smart use of mobile without being addict of it.

The objectives behind arranging this activity are as follows:

- ❖ To address the problem of Addiction of mobile.
- ❖ To create awareness among students and staff regarding addiction of mobile.
- ❖ To sensitize students and staff for smart use of mobile phones.
- ❖ To provide opportunity/platform for students to exhibit their talent/cultural skills.

For the successful implementation of this mime activity Prof. Shriram Kargaonkar (SWO) and among the students Mr. Pranav Bangal, Mr. Atharva Shah, Ku. Saraswati etc. of FYBSc (C) took efforts.

A Report of 'Cleanliness Campaign at Indrayani River Bank on Account of Shree Ganesh Visarjan'

Date: 20/09/2016

NSS Department of our college organized a cleanliness campaigning at Indrayani River Ghat on Monday, 16 September 2016 on account of Anant Chaturdashi i.e. (Ganesh Visarjan) under 'Swaccha and Swastha Bharat Abhiyan.'

In this programme, Faculties viz., Dr. Sangita Birajdar, Mr. Mangesh Bhole NSS PO and NSS Volunteers and students from our college helped in collection of Lord Ganesh Idols from river basin and bank and also cleaned both the banks of Indrayani River at Alandi, where there was plethora of garbage dumped by devotees after Ganesh Visarjan (immersion of statues) on the occasion of Anant Chaturdashi i.e. (Ganesh Visarjan). NSS Volunteers cleaned it by sweeping and putting the garbage into dustbins provided by Alandi Municipal Council. This activity was planned by Prof. Mangesh Bhole, NSS Programme Officer under the guidance of Principal Dr. B. B. Waphare

REPORT ON

Visit to SAMPARC BalGram Orphanage

MITACSC Alandi (D) has a Student's Social Welfare Group (SSWG) under Student Welfare Cell. On 02/10/2016, members of this social group visited an orphanage named SAMPARC BalGram at Shel Pimple Gaon which is shelter to many orphan, helpless and homeless children.

The objectives of this visit were as follows:

- 1) To handover one month grocery to SAMPARC BalGram raised through donation from students and staff.
- 2) To conduct activities for orphan children and motivate them for bright future.

Our student volunteers met these children, spend their time with these children and organized some useful activities for them. There were 44 children present in this orphanage during our visit. These children welcomed all of us by conducting cultural activities like singing, Dancing and Yoga demonstration by children. Prior to this, Sampark BalGram Manager gave us detailed information about the orphanage.

The SSWG student volunteers had raised the donation of around 9000/- from students and staff and donated one month grocery to this orphanage like 50kg rice, 50 kg wheat, 20kg sugar, 30 litres cooking oil, 10 kg rava, 10 kg poha, 1kg cake, chocolates and gifts for younger children, as a part of social responsibility.

In addition to this, Student Volunteers conducted various activities as follows:

- 1) Career Guidance
- 2) Sports Related Information and guidance
- 3) Drawing Competition
- 4) BalGram Children's Birthday celebration
- 5) Distribution of food stuff.

Total 60 SSWG student volunteers actively participated in this social activity. Thus, Our college students spread the happiness on the faces of these orphan and guided them on career, sports opportunities, study as well as inculcate social values and environmental awareness in these orphans through tree plantation and birthday celebration.

For the success of this event, Prof. Shriram Kargaonkar, Prof. Vijayalakshmi, Mr. Datta Pansare and among students Atharva Shah, Ashwini Biradar, Mayuri Chaudhary and many more students took efforts.

REPORT ON

Tree Plantation Program at Chakan Ghat on 03/10/2016

Date: 03/10/2016

MAEER'S Group of Institution has taken an initiative of planting trees on large scale in its various campuses namely Rajbaug, Pandharpur, Solapur, Barshi, Alandi, Talegaon and Ahmednagar during 27/09/2016 to 03/10/2016. As a part of Institutional stakeholder, MIT Arts, Commerce and Science College, Alandi had been allotted the Chakan Ghat campus near Alandi village with the 1200 trees of different species.

The objectives of this event were as follows:

- 1) To create environmental awareness among students and public.
- 2) To help in maintaining the balance of ecosystem in Chakan Ghat area.
- 3) To use the unutilized land for tree plantation purpose.
- 4) To plant the trees in Chakan Ghat campus.

This initiative was assigned collectively to NSS, SWO and Sports Department of our college in order to implement it efficiently and effectively. All the three department in charges / Coordinators respectively Prof. Mangesh Bhole (NSS-PO), Prof. Shiram Kargaonkar (SWO) and Prof. Sharad Kadam (Sports In-charge) performed the following activities during 14/09/2016 to 03/10/2016:

- 1) Survey of appropriate piece of land in Chakan Ghat campus.
- 2) Identifying and measuring the land for tree plantation.
- 3) Planning and Calculation of Trees to be planted.
- 4) Informing the students about this activity.
- 5) Preparation of the student volunteer list from NSS, SSWG (SWO) and Sports Department.

- 6) Preparation of the budget.
- 7) Preparation of list of equipments, arranging manpower, leveling the lands, digging 1200 pits, arranging plants, putting organic fertilizers in each of 1200 pits etc.
- 8) Arranging the transportation facility for 400 students from Alandi to Chakan Ghat campus.

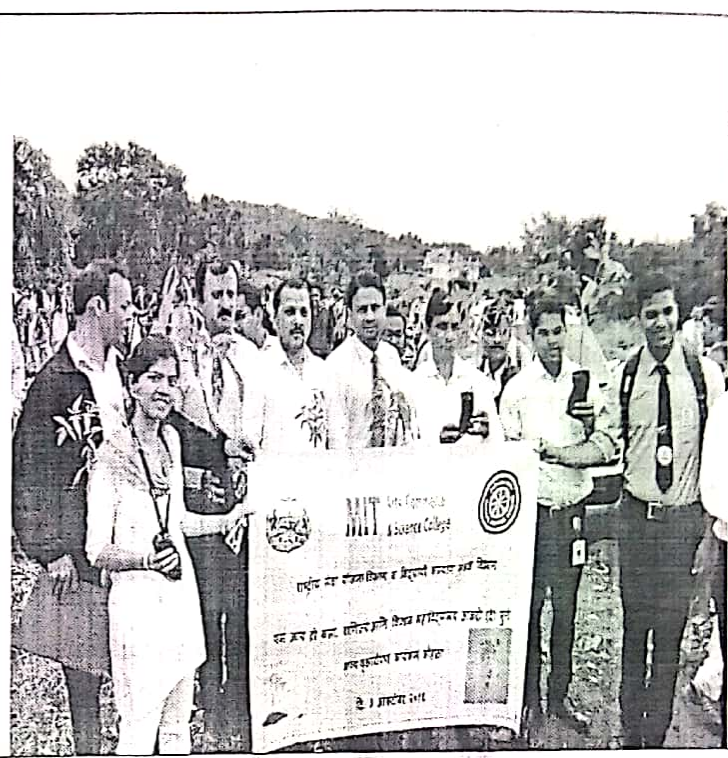

On 03/10/2016, all the students were gathered at the venue and given instructions/demo on how to plant trees properly by all the three coordinators, before the actual tree plantation.

The event was inaugurated by Prof. Dr. B.B. Waphare, Principal, MITACSC, Alandi by worshipping and planting a tree in the presence of faculties and staff namely Mr. Gaurav Magar (Deputy Registrar), Mr. Sandip Rohinkar (Accounts Head), Prof. Amol Mane (HOD, BBA & BBA-IB), Prof. Madhukar Wakhare and Prof. Ranvir Ghate, Mr. Rajesh Kadlak and all student volunteers.

The outcomes of this event were as follows:

- 1) Students and public became aware about the environment.
- 2) We helped in maintaining the balance of ecosystem by our little contribution.
- 3) The unutilized land is used for tree plantation purpose of different species of Indian origin.
- 4) Total 1200 trees were planted in a single day in Chakan Ghat campus.

The entire event got a grand success with the combined efforts of all student volunteers, Prof. Mangesh Bhopale (NSS-PO), Prof. Shriram Kargaonkar (SWO) and Prof. Sharad Kadam (Sports In-charge) under the guidance and support of Prof. Dr. B.B. Waphare, Principal, MITACSC, Alandi.
