A Report on Industrial Visit to Parle Biscuit Pvt. Ltd, Khopoli, Maharashtra.

Date: 04/01/2016

Our college had organized industrial visit for SY BBA & SY BBM-IB students to PARLE – G, Khopoli on 02/01/2016.

We had learned a lot of things related to our specification subjects such as international business, finance, marketing and human resources. The product of Parle-G is not only famous in India but also in other countries. It has many subunits / units all over the India. And the reason behind its success is the taste and quality consistency and the most important thing is they provide a very reasonable rate on their product.

After visiting their production area we have seen their 'Oven' is Asia's largest baking oven for biscuits. They produce the products in a very hygienic way. Only 20% of labour used for making a product and the other things like mixing raw material, framing into different sizes, baking, cutting of product into small and big pieces etc are done technically.

History of Company:

Parle product company was founded in 1929 in British India. It was owned by the Chauhan family of Vile Parle, Mumbai. The Parle brand becomes well known in India. Following the success of products such as the Parle-G biscuits and the thumps up soft drink.

The original Parle Company was split into three separate companies, owned by the different factions of the original Chauhan families.

Brands:

• Biscuits :

Parle-G, krack jack, Monaco, Kreams, Golden Arce, Parle Marie, Milk Shakti, Parle Hide & seek Burdon, Parle Hide & Seek Fab, Top, Parle Gold Star, Happy Happy, 20-20, Simply Gold, Namkeens.

Chocolates :

Melody, Mango bite, Poppines, 2 in 1 Eclairs, Mazel, Kismi Toffee Ban, London Derry, Kaccha Mango Bite.

Snacks :

Manaco Small chips, Parle's wafers, full toss, Parle Namkeens.

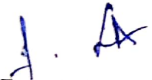

Since they have been entered at the food competition of monde selection in 1971, the brands have received consistently gold and silver Quality awarded the world quality selections.
