Objective- To offer students opportunities for cultural and aesthetic experiences through active participation in music, enhance their understanding and appreciation of the arts, and foster interaction between music and the liberal arts.

Description- There was 112 participants in this content. There were three rounds in this contest. Judges shortlist the best participants in this first round. Then in second and there were best singer are tested for their talent. Students were very active during all the competition. Many contestants who take part in singing contests fail at first round because they forgot their lyrics or even forgot what song they were supposed to sing. This is what happens when stage fright or performance anxiety gets the better of you during an audition. It gives you a mental blackout and wipes out everything that you might have planned to perform or do. Singing in a competition or contest is very different from doing a performance in front of your regular audience. Hence students performed well and gain confident.
