Sukanya Manch

Sukanya Manch.... Yes, she can.

Cumulative Report from 2016-17 to 2020-21

Women are highly respected in India from the Vedic ages. The focus on women's education was never absent. The word 'sahadharmini' was known from the Vedic days. Sahadharmini means - equal partner. It is thus very clear that women in India in ancient days also enjoyed respect, education and reverence.

Be the heroine of your life, not the victim.

- Nora Ephron

Women empowerment refers to the activities undertaken to improve the social, economic, and political status of women in the world. The female gender has faced subjugation and systematic oppression throughout history, and the situations call for improvement in their condition in society.

There are several principles defining women's empowerment such as, for one to be empowered, they must come from a position of disempowerment. They must acquire empowerment themselves rather than have it given to them by an external party. Other studies have found that empowerment definitions entail people having the capability to make important decisions in their lives while also being able to act on them. Empowerment and disempowerment are relative to the other at a previous time; as such, empowerment is a process rather than a product.

- With the same enthusiasm department took initiative in the concept of Girls empowerment basically empowerment is a process of ongoing change through which women and girls expand their aspirations, strengthen their voice, and exercise more choice. A woman or girl can experience empowerment in varying degrees and across different areas of her life—in her home, her family, her workplace, and her community.
- Jagruti Manch in collaboration with Student s Development Cell organized a nirbhay Kannya Workshop organized in which expert lecture was planned this lecture was given by renowned social worker Mrs. Vandana Sonawane "on Women Empowerment

Mrs. Vandana Sonawane elaborated the term empowerment with apt examples

She focused upon the various challenges before the girls in today's world. Girls Students from various colleges and streams actively participated in this lecture in the large number. Prof. Diksha Kadam Co-Ordinated the student This lecture was held on 1st March 2018 in which large numbers of girls students took part.

- Jagruti Manch in collaboration with Student development cell organized Nirmal Waari drive .Basically this drive is is about providing portable toilets to mass gathering during annual Pandharpur waari & get volunteers help to ensure usage of toilets.motive behind organizing this drive was to make students aware of the spiritual satisfaction and importance of cleanliness during wari time .It was organized on 4th July 2018.

- When it comes to gender equality, we can observe that, there has been progress over the last decades: More girls are going to school, fewer girls are forced into early marriage, more women are serving in parliament and positions of leadership and laws are being reformed to advance gender equality. We should know that, Empowering women and girls helps expand economic growth, promote social development and establish more stable and just societies. Women's economic empowerment benefits both women and children. It is pivotal to the health and social development of families, communities and nations. Further, the UN's Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) underscore women's empowerment as an important development objective, in and of itself, and highlight the relevance of gender equality to addressing a wide range of global challenges. Same empathy is shared by Jagruti Manch over the years towards Women and Manch arranged an essay competition. This Essay competition on gender equality and inequality was organized by 'Jagruti Manch in association with Student Development Cell' of college for the students and faculties of all streams on Tuesday, 3rd August, 2018.
