

ALANDI (D).PUNE 412105

DEPARTMENT OF ARTS AND COMMERCE

YOUNG SPEAKERS CLUB

Name of the programme: Students Parliament - Artificial Intelligence a threat for the future of life and human existence      Date: 23 August 2019

Objectives: To develop critical thinking and to enhance ability to organize and structure thoughts .

Students parliament was organized on the topic Artificial Intelligence a threat for the future of life and human existence on 23 August 2019. The students actively participated in the discussion. Sayali Dabhade (TY BBA-IB) explain process, rules and topic for the parliament discussion. Chinmay Gaikwad (FY BCOM) performed the role of the Speaker. He controlled the discussion. Shivam Patro (SY BCOM) was the leader of opposite party. Rushikesh Dhadge (FY BCOM) was the leader of ruling party. The participants expressed their views in well manner. The points they raised were remarkable. They elaborated the topic nicely. Participants discussed how Artificial intelligence has become a threat to the human. They discussed negative impact of AI on society. They pointed out the impact on AI on employment sector, increase in human dependency on AI etc. The members in opposition explained how AI is useful for human development. They discussed the use of AI in various sectors like business, medical science, data collection and storage etc. Students from BA, B Com, BBA, BBA-IB & BBA-CA participated in the parliament.

