

Internal Complaint Committee of MIT ACSC conducted a “Essay Writing Competition” on “Awareness towards AIDS” on Wednesday, 11th December 2019 on the occasion of World AIDS DAY (1st December). Students from all departments participated with the passion in this event. Total 15 participants participated in the competition. Prof. Archana Aher & Prof. Akanksha Landge invited as judge for the poster presentation competition. All the judges assessed the essay of the individual student and judge them on the basis of Selection of the topic, Handwriting, Language Fluency, Knowledge about subject and presentation. Students have to submit essay in English, Hindi or Marathi language. Total word limit is 700 words. Topics of competition are:

- a) AIDS Awareness- Need of time
- b) Health is Wealth
- c) Fitness for Future

Winners of the competition are

1. Arati Andhale	-	First Prize	- Rs.250/-
2. Yugandhara Amble	-	Second Prize	- Rs.150/-
3. Pratiksha Dhautre	-	Third Prize	- Rs.100/-

All participants get awarded by participation certificates.

