

MIT Arts, Commerce and Science College, Alandi (D)-412105

Department of Electronics Science, MIT Arts, Commerce and Science College, Alandi, Pune was organized One day district level workshop on “Internet of things using Arduino” on 4th Feb,2020 for UG students of B.Sc.(computer Science), B.Sc.(Electronic Science). This workshop was inaugurated with the hands of guest speaker Prof. Dipali Shende, Sighgad Institute of Technology, Lonavala and Prof. Sunil Mahajan, HOD Electronics Dept. In this workshop total 36 students participated. Out of which 33 students from our college and 2 students were from St. Mira’s college of Girls and 1 student from Telung College, Pune.

Workshop was divided into 4 parts. In first session contents like Introduction to IOT, Arduino basics, and interfacing of sensors with Arduino were taken. In second session Programming based on different sensors were taken. In third and last session discuss different designing and applications of IOT.

Glimpses of the event:

