The Department of Administration & International Business had organized a University Level Two Days Workshop on “Government Schemes for Entrepreneurship Development in Domestic & International Business” Sponsored by the Student Development Board of Savitribai Phule Pune University, in association with the Students Development Cell of our college.

The workshop was scheduled on 2nd & 3rd March, 2023 at 10:30 am to 3:30 pm.

The resource person in the workshop covered the following points:

1. Mr. Suresh Umap, Zonal Head, MCED, Pune, Konkan & Kolhapur.- Developing entrepreneurial mindset & various schemes of Govt. its applicability & eligibility in today's scenario.
2. Mr. Vishal Ghag - Director – Slikun School of Business Ltd. London & Pratibhashala Foundation (NGO) – Generating motivation & inspiration to identify entrepreneurship concern, developing thinking capacity & idea generation process. Also focused on micro financing avenues for business start ups.
3. Mr. Hemant Bhagwat - Business Consultant, Founder & President - Shraddha Education Foundation, MCED Program Organiser - Business Development Opportunities in Current Business Ecosystem, high & low points in career graph of entrepreneur & achieving desired results.
4. Mrs. Pramila Bhimpure - Director, Grampus Shipping & Logistics Pvt. Ltd.- Business Opportunities in International Supply Chain and Logistics Management. Choosing the right logistics planning team will insure that your shipment, small or large, will get the attention required to move it to any point anywhere worldwide!

Mr. Suresh Umap, has presented an exhaustive list of Govt. Schemes through which applicants with various background can take the advantage to start the business.

Dr. Vishal Ghag has interacted with 25 students personally & provided guidance to the budding entrepreneurs. He gave solution to each student wherever they had doubt & queries were also answered until students were satisfied with answer.

The workshop was actively attended & participated by the students. Mr. Hemant Bhagwat also invited students to participate in a role play as businessman & life partners. The resource persons also gave inputs regarding collective efforts that can be taken to initiate ideation process among the students. Various live examples about unexpected outcomes of short time successful business ventures were shared by experts.

Mrs. Pramila Bhimpure had shown videos of actual loading & unloading of critical material on the ship & its export / import procedure. She also shared the risks of carrying huge load & how critical it is to safeguard the consignment from theft, stealing, damage & destruction. The whole import export business procedure is based on an error free process until material reaches the desired end. The whole process needs lots of experience & trust in parties involved.

The Workshop was attended & learning's benefitted by 347 students, out of that 177 were boy students & 170 were girl students.

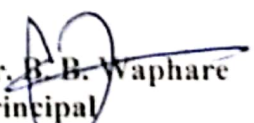

The session was highly interactive & interesting. Students were engrossed in the success & failure stories shared by the speakers about various entrepreneurs. The differences in reasons, aptitude & education of all the entrepreneurs were real surprise & alarm for the students also. There are possibilities of becoming entrepreneurs, only if we want to. The session ended with an exhaustive question & answer session.

Outcome of the workshop:

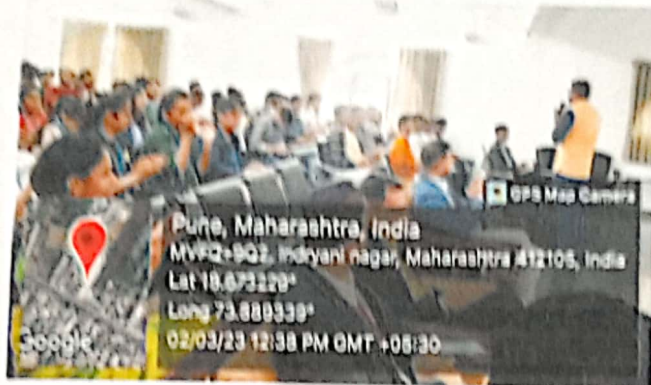

1. Students learned regarding successful entrepreneurs backgrounds.
2. Students got clarity about – areas of business ecosystems.
3. Students could correlate with socio – economic situations with the entrepreneurs.
4. Students developed in-depth awareness about business ventures risks & opportunities.
5. Students got realization that age, gender & birthplace has no relevance to become an entrepreneur.
