Description:

Afflatus Club of the Department of Science and Computer Science of MAEER's MIT Arts, Commerce and Science College, Alandi Road, Pune has organized a guest lecture on “Career opportunities in Foreign Countries after Graduation” for the students on 12/08/2023 at 8.00 PM. The lecture was delivered by Ms. Anisha Agrawal an alumni of 2022 batch, currently pursuing Master's at California State University Los Angeles, Public University.

Mrs. Kavita shinde coordinator of Afflatus club started the program, after that Dr. Sangita Birajdar HOD of Science and Computer Science department delivered a welcome speech.

Ms. Anisha Agrawal has shared her experience and preparation to achieve her goal to take admission for masters in public university. She further explained what kind of preparation is required to crack such exams like GRE ,TOFEL and the interview process, how many credits required for different universities, what is the fee structure and how to approach for scholarship of Private and Public universities, what certification/ add-on courses students need to do to fulfil credit criteria set by foreign universities. She also explained the process of visa and what are the documents required for that.

All these topics of discussion made the session more interactive and all the students took part in the question answer session. These topics of discussion disclose most of the doubts as to how to go abroad for further education. Out of 163 registered participants, total 75 participants were present for the session.

At the end of the session Mrs. Rashmi Lad extend her deepest thankfulness to Ms Anisha Agrawal for her valuable time to the students and making students aware of Career in foreign countries.
