Report on Professional Consultation Program on topic “Global Competency Skills”

Date: 27th August 2024

Name of the Activity : “Professional Consultation Program on topic “Global Competency Skills”

Objectives: To help students live well with other cultural communities, understand the importance of sustainability, and adapt to an international marketplace.

Date : 27th August 2024

Venue : TRN 303

The Professional Consultation Program on topic “Global Competency Skills” was successfully organized by the Department of Arts & Commerce on Tuesday, 27th August 2024 under the guidance of Dr. Padmavati Undale, HoD Arts & Commerce. This program was designed to enhance college students' understanding and capabilities in navigating the increasingly interconnected global workforce.

Dr. Mangesh Bhopale (HoD of BBA & BBA-IB) was the resource person for this program. He explained effective communication strategies when interacting with people from different cultural backgrounds. He described the impact of digital technologies on global business practices and how students can leverage these tools for career advancement.

He engaged students in group exercises to address real-world global issues, emphasizing collaborative problem-solving and critical thinking. He explained different twelve Global competency skills by using appropriate examples.

108 students attended this program and feedback from them indicated that they found the session highly informative and beneficial. The "Global Competency Skills" program successfully met its objectives by providing college students with valuable insights and practical skills needed for a globalized job market. The positive feedback and skill development observed among participants highlight the program's effectiveness and the need for continued focus on global competency in educational settings.

This Professional Consultation Program ended with the vote of thanks proposed by Sakshi Salunke, student of TYBCOM.
