

Department of Arts & Commerce

Academic Year 2024-25

Report on

Professional Consultation Program

Date: 18th February 2025

Name of the Activity: "Awareness of NISM DSO1 Course"

Objectives: To inform and educate individuals about the NISM DSO1 (Derivatives Market (Dealers) Certification) course, its significance, and its role in enhancing knowledge and skills related to the Indian derivatives market.

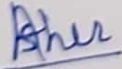

Date : 18th February 2025

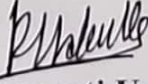

"Awareness of NISM DSO1 Course" was successfully organized by the Department of Arts & Commerce on Tuesday, 18th February 2025 under the guidance of Dr. Padmavati Undale, HoD Arts & Commerce.

Mr. Ashwin Kasture was the resource person for this program. He told that this course is essential for individuals working in or aspiring to work in the derivatives segment of the Indian financial markets. He explained about the NISM DSO1 course, including its purpose, structure, benefits, and the role it plays in the professional development of individuals in the financial industry.

The NISM DSO1 course is an essential certification for individuals involved in the derivatives market in India. It not only enhances the knowledge and understanding of market participants but also offers significant professional and career benefits. The awareness program aims to familiarize professionals with the course content, structure, and the opportunities it presents.

84 students attended this program, was an enlightening experience that showcased by pursuing this certification, individuals can improve their expertise, increase their career opportunities, and contribute to the overall efficiency and integrity of the Indian financial markets.

Dr. Archana Aher
Coordinator

Dr. Padmavati Undale
HoD Arts & Commerce

Dr. B. B. Waphare
Director

“Awareness of NISM DSO1 Course” Dated 18th February 2025

