Objectives: To encourage students to reflect on their own educational journey and the impact of Teachers have had on their lives.

Date: 10th July 2025

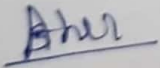

Venue: SRN 203

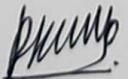

Beneficiaries: 39 students

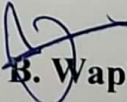

Gurupournima Celebration was successfully organized by the Department of Arts & Commerce on Thursday, 10th July 2025 under the guidance of Dr. Padmavati Undale, HoD Arts & Commerce. It was aimed to honor and express gratitude towards teachers and mentors who play a pivotal role in shaping the lives and careers of students.

Students showcased their talents through various cultural performances such as music recitals, speeches, riddles and all themed around the guru-shishya relationship. Malvika Nair, student of TYBCom explained the importance of Gurus in our lives. Then students of SY & TYBCOM Shubhanshu Bhosale, Aarti Thakur and Neha Jethwani presented their thoughts to express gratitude towards all faculties of the department. One of the students of SYBCOM Rashi Patil requested teachers to share their experiences. These speeches added a colorful and artistic dimension to the event.

39 students attended this program and feedback from them indicated that they found the session highly informative and beneficial. This program was a resounding success, fostering a sense of gratitude, respect, and mutual appreciation among students and faculty alike. It served as a reminder of the invaluable role that teachers play in shaping the future generation and nurturing intellectual curiosity. This program ended with the vote of thanks proposed by Pragya Kandipal student of TYBCom.
