The much awaited induction program for the First Year Bachelor of Commerce (FYBCOM) students took place on July 18, 2025, at the Seminar Hall. This event marked the beginning of an exciting academic journey for the newly enrolled students.

The program aimed to provide insights into the college, its values, and the educational experience that awaits them. The event was graced by the presence of several esteemed personalities from the college administration and faculty.

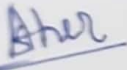

Dr. Padmavati Undale, Head of the Department for Commerce, delivered a Welcome speech. She highlighted the importance of embracing challenges, developing strong work ethics, and making the most of the opportunities the college provides. The Dean School of Commerce & Management Dr. Amol Mane, focused upon the ceremony, emphasizing the importance of academic discipline and holistic growth. The Deputy Director, Dr. Manasi Atitkar, elaborated the facilities provided by the college for co-curricular and extracurricular development of the students. The Deputy Director, Prof Akshada Kulkarni focused upon the much needed technical and academic skills within the students. She encouraged them to actively participate in academic and extracurricular activities to enhance their learning experience.

Director Dr. B.B. Waphare addressed the students, stressing the college's commitment to academic excellence, personal growth, and community engagement. He motivated the students to explore their interests and contribute to the college's vibrant community.

Throughout the event, students had the chance to interact with faculty members and their peers. They engaged in discussions about study strategies, time management, and how to make the most of their college experience. This Program was an engaging and enlightening experience for the newly admitted students. The presence of esteemed personalities, informative speeches, and interactive sessions set a positive tone for their academic journey.

The program ended up with the words of gratitude by Dr. Archana Aher.
